

Project Fresh returns Friday

Daily Telegram July 12, 2012

ADRIAN, Mich. —

The Community Action Agency, in partnership with Michigan State University and the Department on Aging, has announced that Project Fresh will return to Community Action Agency, 400 W. South St., Adrian, beginning Friday, July 13.

Project Fresh offers fresh fruits and vegetables from local farms and the HOPE Community Center garden. Market hours are 8:30 to 11 a.m. The market, which is open to the public, also will take place July 20 and July 27.