JACKSON, MI – Eaton Aerospace in Jackson has granted $115,000 to local nonprofits to support programs that strengthen families and provide essential services to children, according to a news release. Fourteen organizations received grants ranging from $5,000 to $15,000 to support projects that include building new energy-efficient homes, providing hospice care, expanding access to health services, mentoring and more.

“Support from Eaton and the dedicated employees who work there and advocate for these local causes is so impressive,” said Jessica Murray, spokeswoman for Community Action Agency. “The employees have had friends and family members, who have needed, used or had their lives touched by these services and organizations, and it is important to them to give back.”

Grants were awarded to the following nonprofits:

- Allegiance Hospice Home $10,000
- American Cancer Society $10,000
- AWARE, Inc. $5,000
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of Jackson County $10,000
- Catholic Charities of Jackson $5,000
- Community Action Agency $15,000
- Family Service & Children’s Aid $5,000
- Greater Jackson Habitat for Humanity $10,000
- Jackson Symphony Orchestra $5,000
- Jackson YMCA $10,000
- Junior Achievement of Michigan Edge $10,000
- Lily Missions Center $5,000
- March of Dimes Foundation $5,000
- Salvation Army of Jackson $10,000
