

TIPTON

Hidden Lake Gardens hosts plant sale Saturday

Hidden Lake Gardens, 6214 Monroe Road (M-50), will have a plant sale from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, May 7. Plenty of plants for the garden and Mother's Day — including annuals, perennials, conifers, hostas, daylilies, succulents, herbs, vegetables, shrubs, and trees — will be available. A members-only preview sale is from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, May 6.

ADRIAN

AC planetarium to host show on the spring sky Friday

The Robinson Planetarium and Observatory at Adrian College will host "Star Talk: The Spring Sky" at 7 p.m. Friday, May 6. The show will feature the sun, spring constellations and visible planets. Special attention will be paid to objects that are easily visible with binoculars or a small telescope. The show will end with Solar Quest, a short, full-dome movie that shows the interconnectedness of the Sun and Earth, including how space weather affects the atmosphere to create the northern lights atmosphere and distorts Earth's magnetic field.

Admission is free. The planetarium is located at the eastern end of Peelle Hall on the corner of Charles and Williams streets.

ADRIAN

Event to honor local heroes

Family Counseling & Children's Services of Lenawee County will host its first ever Everyday Heroes Event at 6 p.m. Tuesday, May 24, at the Adrian College Tobias Center. The event will honor individuals who have shown courage, kindness and unselfish acts of heroism in the Lenawee County community. The public is welcome to attend. Cost is $30 per person.

The event will salute 13 local heroes in the following categories: law enforcement, medical professional, animal rescue, adult good Samaritan, youth good Samaritan, local military, justice/court, educator, mental health ambassador and community citizen. A heroes nominating committee of local community leaders met recently to select the award winners from solicited nominations.

Honorees will be presented with engraved awards, "Certificates of Honor" from Family Counseling & Children's Services, and tributes from Michigan state legislators and U.S. Rep. Tim Walberg. Winners will not be announced until the event. All proceeds from the event will go to benefit the emergency and trauma services offered by FCCS, including counseling services and the Catherine Cobb shelter services.

Tickets to the event cost $30 per person or $225 for a table of eight. A registration form can be found at www.fccsoflenawee.org. Tickets may be purchased by phone at 265-5352, in person at 220 N. Main St. in downtown Adrian, or online. Event sponsorship is also still available. Call 265-5352 for more information.

ADRIAN

Community Action Agency offers homebuyer education

Community Action Agency is offering homebuyer education classes to help those interested in buying their first home.

The two-part class will discuss all aspects of home purchases. Classes take place at 5:30 p.m. Mondays, May 16 and 23, at the Community Action Agency's Learning Center, 324 W. South St., Adrian. Participants must attend both dates. For more information, and to register, contact Julie Laughlin at 263-7861 or jlaughlin@caajlh.org

Community Action Agency also offers classes in budgeting basics and financial stability.

BLISSFIELD

First Saturday paper drive

Blissfield Boy Scout Troop 8 will have its monthly paper drive on Saturday, May 8. Residents are asked to have their newspapers tied in bundles or in paper bags and on their front steps or at the curb by 8:30 a.m. Organizers also remind residents that magazines and cardboard are not accepted.

Papers may also be dropped off anytime to a semi-trailer parked at the Michigan Agricultural Commodities lot, 10895 E. U.S. 223, Blissfield. For more information call 486-4024.

ONSTED

SAL hosts Sunday breakfast

The Onsted SAL invites the public to enjoy breakfast from 7:30 to 11 a.m. Sunday, May 8, at the Onsted American Legion, 333 Connor St. The all-you-can-eat breakfast is $6 for adults and free for children under 12.

DEERFIELD

Sunday breakfast at Post 392

Deerfield American Legion Post 392 invites the public to its all-you-can-eat breakfast from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Sunday, May 8, at the post, 105 W. River St. Included are eggs, sausage, pancakes, sausage gravy and biscuits, and beverages. The cost is $6, $3 for children 5-13 and free for kids under 5.

ADRIAN

Lenawee Memory Cafe meets on second Sunday

The Lenawee Memory Cafe meets on the second Sunday of each month from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Rose Room at the Dominican Life Center, 1277 E. Siena Heights Drive. The group is an education and support organization for patients with Alzheimer's/dementia and their caregivers.

Registration is not required but appreciated. To register contact cafe coordinator Tammy Jewell at Daybreak Adult Day Services, 266-2588 or email tjewell@lenaweeseeniors.org.

TECUMSEH

Wedding planning 101

Tecumseh District Library presents Wedding Planning 101 at 7 p.m. Tuesday, May 10. Faythe Emens, owner of Your Big Day Weddings and Events, LLC, will discuss how to prepare the budget, plan the wedding timeline and source reputable vendors.

Emens is a certified wedding and event planner. She earned certification in wedding and event planning from the U.S. Career Institute in Fort Collins, Colorado, and is also an ordained wedding minister/officiant through World Christianity Ministries.

The program is free and open to the public. Tecumseh District Library is at 215 N. Ottawa St. For more information call Chuck Harpst at the library, 423-2238.

BULLETIN BOARD

■ The Michigan/Ohio Wood Turners Club meets from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the second Saturday of each month at Christ Episcopal Church, 720 Riverside Ave., Adrian. Meetings are open to all interested wood workers and wood turners. For more information call Tom